Magnet therapy massage

PRODUCT INFORMATION

Magnetic therapy (magneto therapy), the magnetic field ACTS on the human body for treatment of disease. Magnetic field affect the movement of the current distribution, charge particle system, muscle membrane permeability and biological macromolecule magnetic moment of the orientation, the physiological and biochemical process of tissue cells, produces pain, swelling, and promote blood and lymph circulation, and so on.

THE PRINCIPLE OF MAGNETIC ACUPUNCTURE POINT MERIDIAN

This trident lymph massager is the use of strong magnetic field effect and flat spectrum produced by series magnetic energy, have radiation to absorb to resonance effect to the use of treatment, can promote blood circulation, increase metabolism, enhance the immune system, raise the body's positive and negative ions to rearrange the portfolio, and soreness ion oxidation decomposition, can obtain the aim of relaxing tendons; In and after the friction heat production, will release the injection penetrating (up to 5-12 cm) of spectrum of light, the light in the body, can be broken down, the water molecule can achieve swelling and pain treatment effect and improve tissue function.

MAGNETIC ACUPUNCTURE POINT MERIDIAN

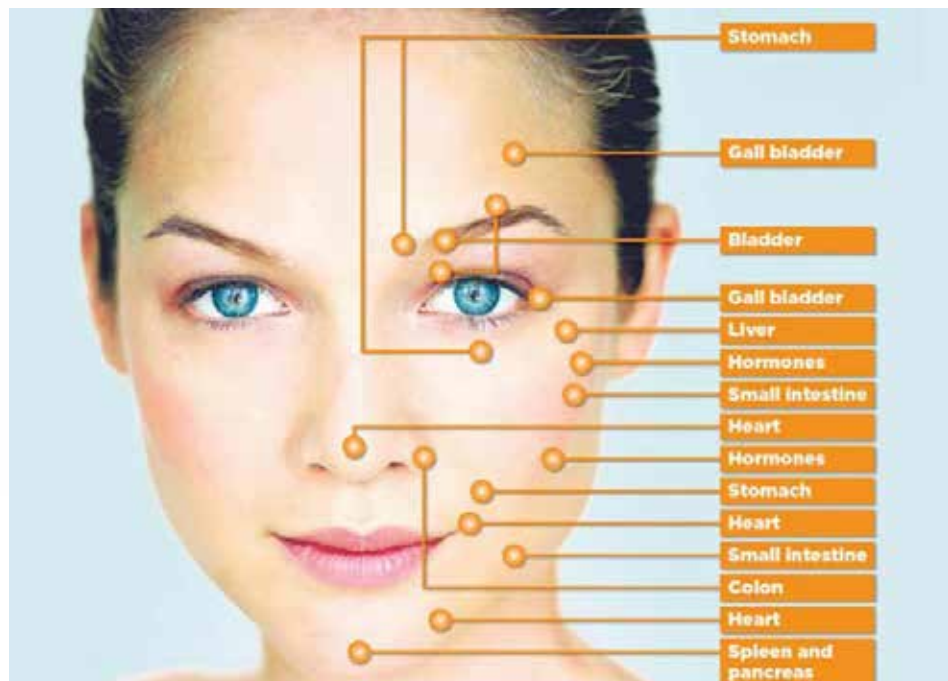

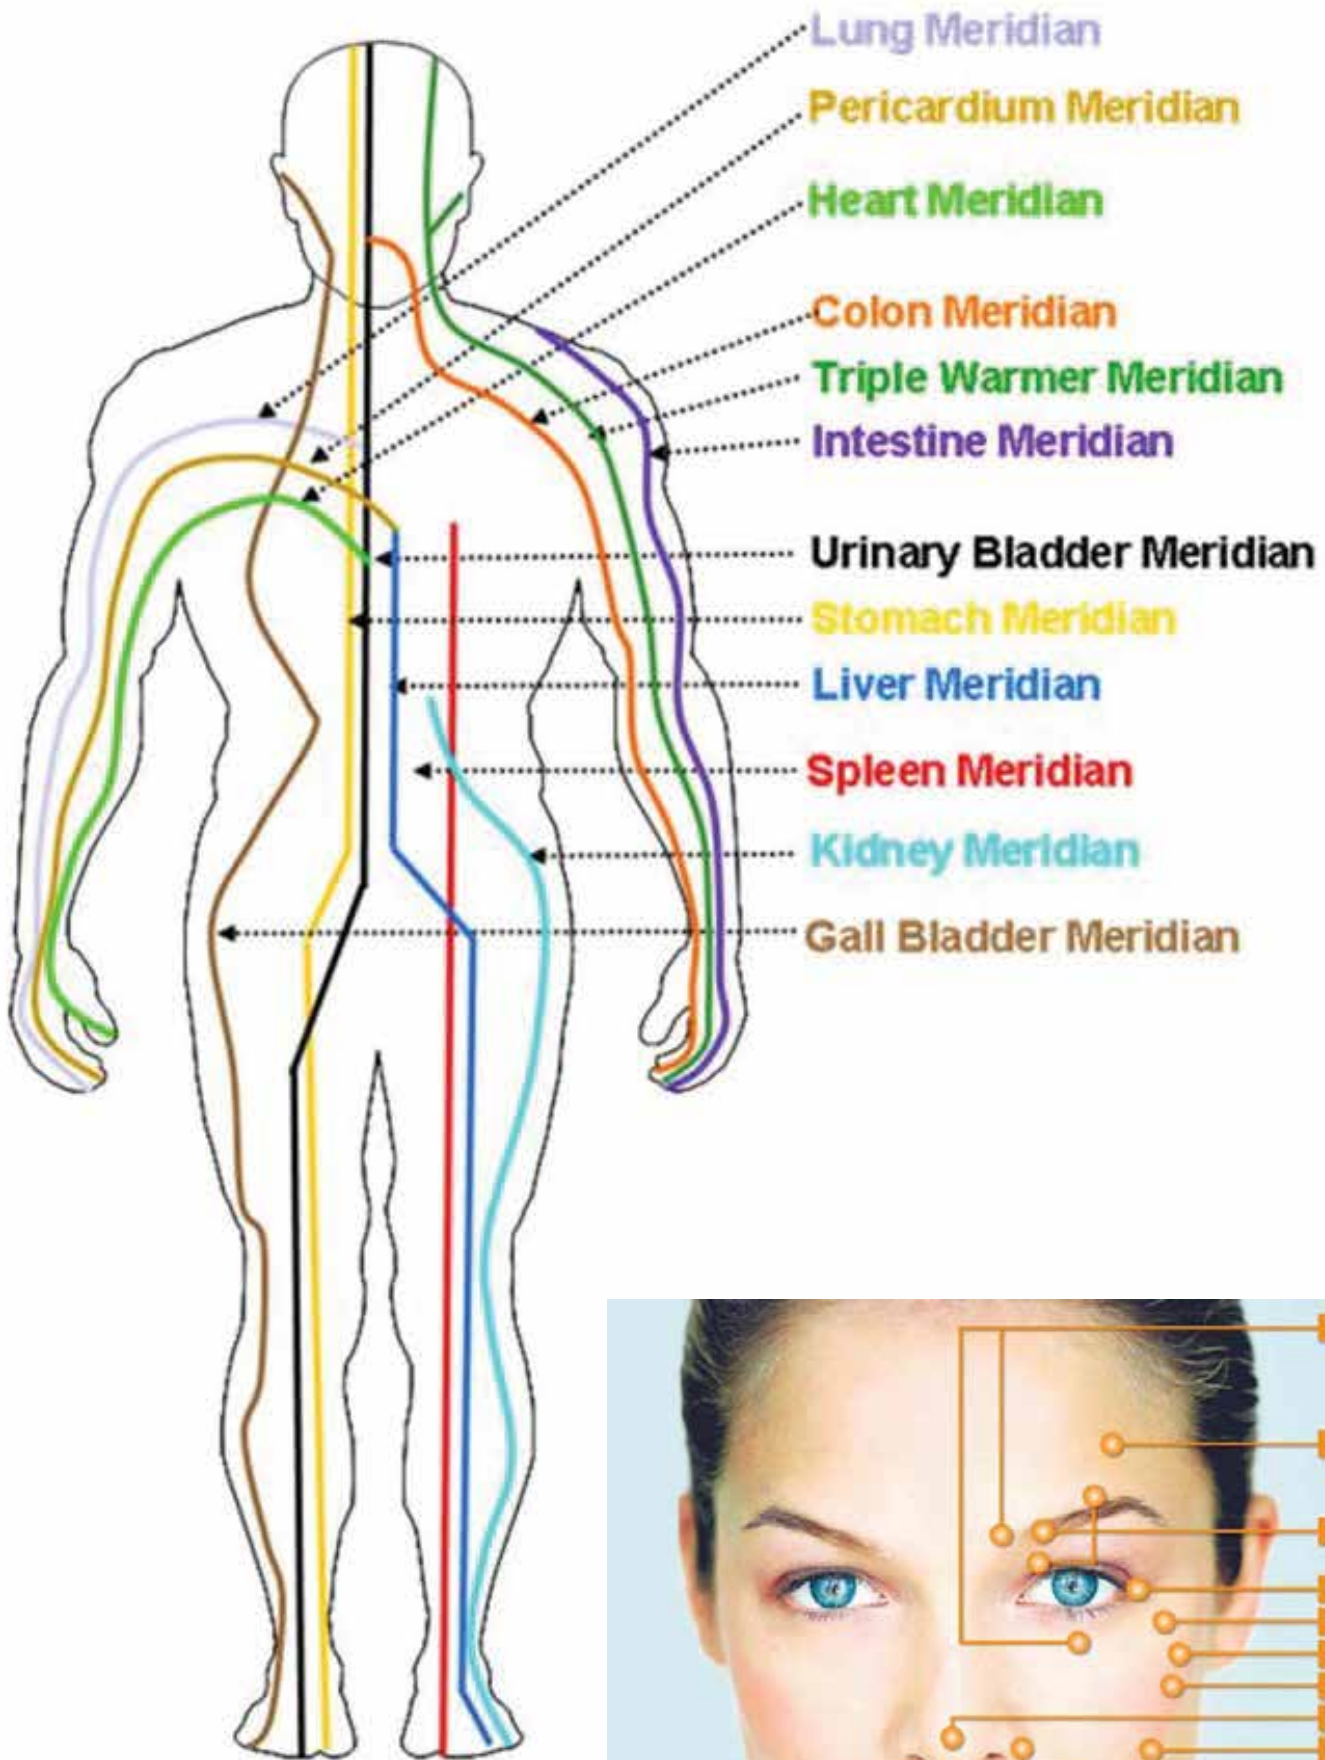

Itself the use scope is extremely widespread, both in the dot line, face all can use, so throughout the whole body of any part of the body to be able to treatment; Due to, the whole body of the meridians of acupuncture point of ligaments articular cavity depth layer meat can penetrating treatment, can be said to play incisively and vividly; Really achieve treatment and regulate health essence.

Magnetic acupuncture point features and advantages all has surpassed the traditional medical instrument technique, to save costs, more environmental protection concept, use energy and security, not cause occupational injuries or invasive injury, anytime, anywhere can operate without being limited by the space, can be self-care and treatment of others, benefit a lot from it.
